

Eastern Neck

National Wildlife Refuge

Rock Hall, MD

Waterfowl Watch

Saturday, December 4, 2004

See buffleheads, goldeneyes, ruddy ducks, scaup, tundra swans and other species of migratory waterfowl during guided tours of normally closed areas of Eastern Neck Island!

Two tours: 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., 12:00 p.m. to 3:00 pm.

"Tundra Swan Watch Boardwalk"

Dedication & Reception
at noon

Remembering Dolly Minis

Established in 1962, Eastern Neck National Wildlife Refuge is a 2,286-acre island (with bridge access) located on Maryland's upper Eastern Shore, 7 miles from Rock Hall (19 miles from Chestertown) in Kent County. Events are free. For more information, call 410-639-7056 or visit <http://easternneck.fws.gov>